

LPFM is cause for serious concern based on the possibility it could displace my current radio station. K-Love, 94.9, is providing critical weather service warnings for my farming operation. K-Love also provides great news and music. I do not want interference with this station from any source.